presented were carefully reviewed and selected for inclusion in the book. The topics addressed span the entire range from theoretical considerations of important metainformatics related questions and issues to practical descriptions of approaches and systems that offer assistance in their resolution.

This volume contains the final proceedings of the 2004 Metainformatics Symposium (MIS 2004). The event was held during 15-18 September 2004 in Salzburg, Austria at Salzburg Research.

Abstracts of keynote talks, 4 doctoral consortium presentations, and 17 posters were carefully reviewed and selected from 138 submissions. The papers provide an excellent view on innovative personalization and adaptation functionalities in a variety of areas including e-learning, e-commerce, mobile tourist guides, etc; they also show the integration of personalization functionalities employed in Web environments, in ambient intelligence and intelligent agents contexts, and building upon adaptive hypermedia and semantic Web technologies, Web search, Web services, social and peer-to-peer
